Decision No. 50325

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of LYLE V. SCOTT for authority to suspend passenger stage operations .))))	First Supplemental Application No. 34276
--	------------------	---

ORDER CONTINUING IN EFFECT
ORDER SUSPENDING OPERATIONS

By Decision No. 48689, dated June 9, 1953, on Application No. 34276, Lyle V. Scott was given authority to suspend his passenger stage operations between San Bernardino, on the one hand, and the Victorville Army Air Base (also known as George Air Force Base), and Air Base Housing Project, on the other hand, for a period of one year from June 9, 1953. By the first supplemental application herein he has requested that this Commission extend the order of suspension for an additional period of one year or less pending the building of housing facilities at George Air Force Base.

Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED:

(1) That Lyle V. Scott is hereby authorized to suspend for one year from and including June 9, 1954, passenger stage operations between San Bernardino, on the one hand, and Victorville Army Air Base (also known as George Air Force Base) and Air Base Housing Project, on the other hand.

(2) That Lyle V. Scott shall file supplements to his tariff and timetables in triplicate, indicating the suspension of service herein authorized. Such filings shall be made within sixty days after the effective date of this order and upon not less than one day's notice to the Commission and to the public.

The effective date of this order shall be the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California,
this 10th day of August, 1954.
