

Decision No. 51127ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of KEY SYSTEM TRANSIT LINES, a corporation, for authority to reroute a portion of its No. 73A
San Pablo Avenue-Codornices
Village and No. 74 Ashby Avenue passenger stage lines in the City of Berkeley, State of California.

Application No. 36647

O P I N I O N

Applicant, Kay System Transit Lines, presently rendering a service for the transportation of passengers between and in the various communities of the East Bay Area as well as between said area and the City and County of San Francisco, requests authority to make slight reroutings of its Lines 73A and 74.

Authority is sought to operate for a short distance over Dwight Crescent Way, a newly constructed short cut between 6th Street and 7th Street. Additional authority is sought to operate over Heinz Avenue between 7th Street and San Pablo Avenue. Heinz Avenue is but one block above Ashby Avenue, over which applicant presently operates. Applicant alleges that recent work along Ashby Avenue by the State Highway Department has made suitable passenger loading zones impractical.

After consideration the Commission is of the opinion that public convenience and necessity require the granting of the authority sought. A public hearing does not appear to be necessary.

O R D E R

Application having been filed and the Commission informed in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED;

That the route description set forth in Decision No. 40742 dated September 23, 1947, in Application No. 19502, is hereby amended to read as follows:

- "1. Ashby Avenue, from Claremont Avenue to Hillegass Avenue; Potter Street, 7th Street, Dwight Crescent Way, 6th Street, 9th Street, Coolidge Street, Wilson Avenue to its intersection with Sixth Street, all within the Cities of Berkeley and Albany.
- "3. Commencing at the intersection of Heinz Avenue and San Pablo Avenue, thence along Heinz Avenue to its intersection with 7th Street.

The effective date of this order shall be twenty days after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 23rd day of February, 1955.
