FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL OPINION AND ORDER

By its amendment to the above-entitled application filed August 29, 1956, Southern California Water Company seeks authority to extend its water system in and to the area shown on Exhibit A attached to said amendment and requests an order of the Commission granting a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the exercise of franchise rights in said area. The area shown in Exhibit A is the defense facility, NIKE Site LA-32, of the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, in the vicinity of Orangewood and Western Avenues, Orange County.

By its Decision No. 53856 dated October 1, 1956, in the above-numbered application the Commission established spheres of operations for applicant, Pacific Water Co., and Dyke Water Company in southwestern Orange County and granted applicant a certificate of public convenience and necessity which includes the area shown on Exhibit A of the instant captioned application as amended.

Public hearings having been held on the overlapping applications of Southern California Water Company (A. 37172) and Dyke Water Company (A. 37097), and Lakewood Water & Power Company (A. 37491), the Commission having issued its decision as hereinbefore noted, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the amendment to Application No. 37172 of the Southern California Water Company filed August 29, 1956, be and it is ^{dismissed} ~~dismissed~~.

The effective date of this order shall be twenty days after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 9th day of OCTOBER, 1956.
