O P I N I O N

V. Fred Jakobsen, doing business as Trans-Bay Motor Express Co., presently transporting property as a highway common carrier between San Francisco Bay Area points subject to the restriction that he shall transport no packages, parcels or pieces which weigh in excess of one hundred pounds, requests that said weight restriction be raised to 200 pounds.

As justification for the authority sought applicant alleges that his customers occasionally offer him shipments which are in excess of one hundred pounds and his inability to accept them results in an inconvenience to all concerned. The Commission has received no protest to the granting of the application.

After consideration, the Commission is of the opinion and so finds that public convenience and necessity require the granting of the authority sought. A public hearing does not appear to be necessary.
