Decision No. 56586

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of Dean, William K., and David M. Carson, individuals, doing business as co-
partners under the name of CROSSTOWN BUS LINES, for authority to operate over certain streets as extensions of existing routes and for authority to abandon certain portions of existing routes.

Application No. 39326

ORDER VACATING DECISION

This Commission by Decision No. 56337, issued March 11, 1958, in the above-entitled matter, granted a portion of the relief sought by applicants therein. The operative rights of applicants were restated in said decision and all previous decisions originally creating such rights were ordered superseded. Applicants, in writing, through their vice president, advised the Commission they would not accept said decision. To avoid possible future confusion and to clarify the status of applicants' operative authority, good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that Decision No. 56337 is revoked.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 22 day of April, 1958.
