Decision No. 57308

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FELIX BRAUN, ALICE BRAUN, and EDGAR BRAUN,

Complainants.

vs.

Case No. 6145

PACIFIC TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO., a corporation,

Defendant.

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT

It appearing that the complaint in the above-entitled proceeding alleges in substance that by virtue of a similarity between the telephone number assigned to the complainants and that assigned to another subscriber, the complainants are being repeatedly annoyed and subjected to inconvenience by persons who erroneously dial complainants' number in attempting to reach the number of the other subscriber, but that said complaint does not set forth any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the defendant in violation of law or of any order, rule, or regulation of the Commission, and that said complaint does not state a cause of action against defendant,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said complaint be and the same is hereby dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco California, this 10 day of September, 1958.
