The highway common carrier certificate of public convenience and necessity of Frank L. Nolan and Mary F. Bartholomew, copartners, doing business as Frank Nolan Drayage Co., has been under suspension since August, 1959, first for failure to pay certain fees and file certain reports, and later for failure to maintain a schedule of classifications.¹ The required fees and reports have been received, and the classification has been reestablished to become effective September 1, 1960. Under these circumstances, the decisions which suspended the operative rights will be vacated on the latter date.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

See Decision No. 58810, dated July 28, 1959, and Decision No. 60133, dated May 17, 1960, both in this proceeding. The effective date of the latter decision has been stayed.
