Ivan McWhinney, for applicant.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

The above-entitled application of Sterling Transit Company, Inc., a corporation, for extension of its certificate was set for hearing on November 15th and 16th, 1960, and at said time applicant appeared by its attorney and requested dismissal thereof. There were no other appearances. A protest had been filed and attorney for applicant stated that the protestant had been notified by telegram of said intention to dismiss. Applicant also submitted a letter and request for dismissal.

Therefore, good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Application No. 42585 is dismissed without prejudice.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 20th day of December, 1960.
