 shares of no par stock.)

Application No. 45820
 (Filed September 27, 1963)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On November 14, 1963, applicant herein was advised by letter that this Commission would consider dismissal of the application unless applicant presented satisfactory justification for its delay in prosecuting its request for a certificate of public convenience and necessity. Applicant did not reply.

On December 24, 1963, applicant was further advised by letter that its failure to reply to the Commission's previous letter implied that it no longer wishes to carry out its original plan to commence operation as a public utility water company. Applicant still did not reply.

Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that Application No. 45820 is dismissed without prejudice.

The effective date of this order shall be twenty days after the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 15th day of JANUARY, 1964.
