

Decision No. 66948ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

JAMES J. OPPEN and RICHARD D.
THOMPSON, doing business as
THOMPSON & OPPEN,

Complainants,

vs.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH
COMPANY, a California Public
Utility Corporation,

Defendant.

Case No. 7669
(Filed July 18, 1963)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Complainants request that defendant be temporarily restrained from printing and distributing the central section of the Los Angeles telephone directory in an all-numeral form and that defendant be ordered to print and distribute said directory with the names of the prefixes heretofore assigned to the respective subscribers until such time as a final determination in Cases Nos. 7445 and 7449 can be had.<sup>1/</sup> Defendant's answer, requesting that the complaint be dismissed, was filed on July 29, 1963.

A temporary restraining order against The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company was issued in Case No. 7504<sup>2/</sup> on September 30, 1963. It applied to the statewide operations of Pacific Telephone.

1/ Cases Nos. 7445 and 7449 relate to all-numeral telephone numbers.

2/ Anti-Digit Dialing League v. Pacific Telephone.

Final decision in Cases Nos. 7445, 7449 and 7504 having been issued, we find that the complaint in Case No. 7669 should be dismissed.

IT IS ORDERED that the complaint in Case No. 7669 is dismissed.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 17th day of MARCH, 1964.
