ORDER REVOKING OPERATIVE RIGHT

M & S Development Company, doing business as Sacramento River Cruises, possesses a certificate of public convenience and necessity as a common carrier by vessel for the transportation of persons between Sacramento, Freeport and points and landings on Steamboat Slough, and between Sacramento and a point on the Sacramento River approximately twelve miles north of Sacramento. The President of M & S Development Company, has informed the Commission that his company has discontinued to operate as a public utility vessel carrier.

M & S Development Company, having discontinued service as a public utility vessel carrier without proper authority, and the Commission being of the opinion and finding that such discontinuance constitutes good cause for revocation of the certificate of public convenience and necessity involved and of the tariff applicable to services thereunder,

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The certificate of public convenience and necessity as a public utility vessel carrier acquired by M & S Development Company by Decision No. 53353 dated July 10, 1956, in Application No. 38034, is hereby revoked.

2. Local Passenger Tariff No. 1, Cal.P.U.C. No. 1, of Sacramento River Cruises (M & S Development Company) is hereby canceled.

The Secretary is directed to cause service of a certified copy of this order to be made upon M & S Development Company, or to mail a certified copy thereof to it at its last known address as shown in the Commission's records.

The effective date of this order shall be the thirtieth day after such service upon M & S Development Company, or after the above mailing, unless before such effective date there shall have been filed with this Commission a written request for a public hearing, in which event the effective date of this order shall be stayed until further order of the Commission.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 2nd day of November, 1964.
