Case No. 9069

Wyman C. Knapp, Attorney for Respondent
W. David Figg-Hoblyn, Attorney for the Commission Staff

OPINION

Hearing on this matter was ordered May 22, 1970. Since the date of such order, Counsel for Respondent and Counsel for the Commission staff have entered into a stipulation respecting the proper penalty for the violations of underestimate reporting to the Commission alleged. Based upon said stipulation, the Commission finds that there were violations as alleged and the Commission concludes that a fine of $1,000 is proper for said violations.

O R D E R

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Said Nacal, Inc. shall pay a fine of $1,000 to this Commission on or before the fifteenth day after service hereof.
2. Said Nacal, Inc. shall cease and desist from further failure to report underestimates as required by this Commission.

The Secretary of the Commission is directed to cause personal service of this order to be made upon respondent Nacal, Inc.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 6th day of JANUARY, 1971.
