ORDER GRANTING LEAVE TO INTERVENE

On March 25, 1971 Continental Air Lines, Inc. (Continental) filed a petition to intervene in this consolidated proceeding, which is presently set for hearing commencing April 12, 1971.

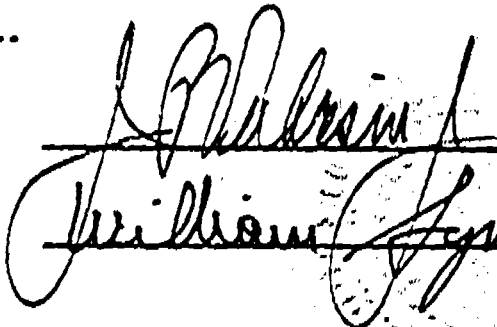

Continental states that it presently operates between Ontario and San Jose with nonstop service, and that as a result it has an economic interest in the addition of any additional passenger air carriers on this route. Continental further states that its intervention will not delay the proceeding, because its participation will be through the submission of written material.

Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that petitioner Continental Air Lines, Inc. is granted leave to intervene in this consolidated proceeding.

The effective date of this order shall be the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 2nd day of APRIL, 1971.
