Application No. 47290

ORDER REVOKING WAREHOUSE OPERATIVE RIGHT

Donald J. French and Jean P. French, doing business as West Coast Van & Storage, possess a prescriptive operative right as a public utility warehouseman for the operation of storage or warehouse floor space at Vacaville.

Donald J. French, Owner-Manager of West Coast Van & Storage, has informed the Commission by letter that the warehouse facilities have not been used by the public for more than six years and requests that the operative right be canceled.

In the circumstances, it appears, and the Commission finds, that revocation of the prescriptive operative right, as requested, would not be adverse to the public interest. A public hearing is not necessary. The Commission concludes that the operative right should be revoked and that the tariff applicable to the services thereunder should be canceled.

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The prescriptive operative right as a public utility warehouseman acquired by Donald J. French and Jean P. French by Decision No. 68802 dated March 30, 1965, in Application No. 47290 is hereby revoked.

2. Donald J. French and Jean P. French, doing business as West Coast Van & Storage, Warehouse Tariff No. 1, Cal.P.U.C. No. 1 (Series of Charles R. Wood doing business as West Coast Van & Storage) is hereby canceled.

The Secretary is directed to cause service of a certified copy of this order to be made upon Donald J. French and Jean P. French or to mail a certified copy thereof to them at their last known address as shown in the Commission's records.

This order shall become effective twenty days after the date hereof.

Dated at San Diego, California, this 2nd day of June, 1971.
