Decision No. 79708

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of TOM UTSUKI TRUCKING, INC., a California corporation, for authority to deviate from minimum rates pursuant to Section 3666 of the Public Utilities
Code for specified shippers.

Application No. 52634
(Filed May 21, 1971)

THIRD INTERIM OPINION AND ORDER

By interim order in Decision No. 78799, dated June 15, 1971, Tom Utsuki Trucking, Inc., a corporation, was granted authority to transport sodium chloride in bulk in dump truck equipment between points in Los Angeles and Orange Counties for Leslie Salt Company, Ocean Salt Company and Western Salt Company at hourly rates in lieu of the Commission's established minimum rates in cents per 100 pounds.

On motion and in accordance with a stipulation at public hearing held September 30, 1971, the Commission by Second Interim Opinion and Order in Decision No. 79297, dated November 9, 1971, extended the authority granted in Decision No. 78799 to expire sixty days after a final decision by the Commission in Petition for Modification No. 41 in Case No. 7783 without prejudice to further extension of said authority if applicant requests additional hearing herein prior to said expiration date.

On December 14, 1971 the Commission entered its Decision No. 79451 in Petition for Modification No. 41 in Case No. 7783, which order became effective and final on January 3, 1972.

By letter dated January 18, 1972 counsel for Tom Utsuki Trucking, Inc., has requested additional hearing and that the authority granted be extended pending final disposition of his application; therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the authority granted in Decision No. 78799 is further extended until further order by the Commission herein.

The effective date of this order shall be the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 15th day of FEBRUARY, 1972.
