Decision No. 80474

ORIGINAL

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Dorothy Shinder,

Complainant

vs.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, et al.,

Defendant

Case No. 9433

ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR RESTRAINING ORDER

The complaint in this matter filed August 28, 1972 in San Francisco apparently alleges, inter alia, that complainant was wrongfully omitted from defendant's 1973 San Francisco telephone directory and seeks, inter alia, that defendant be immediately restrained from distributing said directory until a hearing can be held.

Inasmuch as said directory has been prepared prior to this date and is presently being distributed, and inasmuch as the proper relief for directory omissions is prescribed by defendant's tariffs,

IT IS ORDERED that complainant's request for an immediate order restraining defendant from distributing its 1973 San Francisco telephone directory is denied. All other issues sought to be raised by the complainant will be the subject of further consideration.

The effective date of this order shall be the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this 31ST day of AUGUST, 1972.
