ORDER OF CONSOLIDATION

In Petition No. 722, the California Trucking Association requests that the Commission issue its order directing the respondent highway carriers, listed in Appendix A appended hereto, to show cause why their respective outstanding authorities to depart from or to deviate from the otherwise governing provisions of Minimum Rate Tariff 2 should not be cancelled or, alternatively, modified so as to conform with Commission policy enunciated in J. S. Aeronson (1961) 58 CPUC 533.

By Decision No. 80113 dated May 31, 1972 in Application No. 53255 and Decision No. 80285 dated July 25, 1972 in Application No. 53396, Peninsula Parcel Service, Inc., and San Francisco Parcel Service, Inc., respectively, were granted interim authority, pending public hearing, to transport shipments weighing 100 pounds or less at rates less than and different from the established minimum rates.

Applications Nos. 53255 and 53396 and Petition No. 722 involve related questions of law or fact and should be consolidated.

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. A consolidated public hearing in these proceedings on the matters referred to above be held before Examiner Gagnon at a time and place to be determined.

2. Copies of this order shall be served upon the California Trucking Association, applicants in Applications Nos. 53255 and 53396, and the respondent highway carriers listed in Appendix A attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof.
