Resolutions Nos. T-9909, T-10466, and T-10475, in order to terminate reporting requirements.

Application 83-12-17
(Filed December 8, 1983)

O P I N I O N

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company (Pacific) seeks to terminate the filing of certain reports on the ground that it will no longer be able to furnish the information required from its former parent American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T) after divestiture. ✓

Prior to divestiture, which occurred on January 1, Pacific had been ordered to provide information relating to the Bell System. Now, Pacific can no longer obtain such information.

Pacific served a copy of this application on all appearances in application 83-01-22, its current rate increase proceeding, on December 8, 1983. No protests have been filed.

Findings of Fact

1. Pacific can no longer obtain the information required by the reports listed above from AT&T.

2. There are no protests to this application, and no hearing is necessary.

Conclusions of Law

1. Pacific should be relieved from the required filings set forth in the discussion section of this decision.

2. The order in this decision should be effective at once to eliminate any further filings.

O R D E R

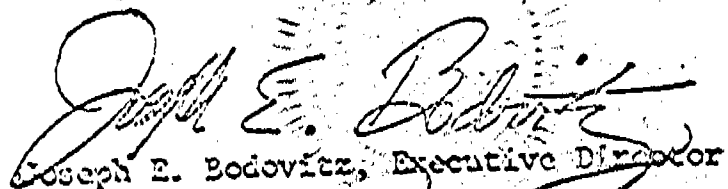

IT IS ORDERED that The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is relieved from filing reports and furnishing information set forth in the tabulation in the opinion portion of this decision. This order is effective today.

Application 83-12-17
(Filed December 8, 1983)

O P I N I O N

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company (Pacific) seems to terminate the filing of certain reports on the ground that it will no longer be able to furnish the information required from its former parent American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T) after divestiture.

Prior to divestiture, which occurred on January 1, Pacific had been ordered to provide information relating to the Bell System. Now, Pacific can no longer obtain such information.

Pacific served a copy of this application on all appearances in application 83-01-22, its current rate increase proceeding, on December 8, 1983. No protests have been filed.

Findings of Fact

1. Pacific can no longer obtain the information required by the reports listed above from AT&T.
2. There are no protests to this application, and no hearing is necessary.

Conclusions of Law

1. Pacific should be relieved from the required filings set forth in the discussion section of this decision.
2. Assuming the continued value of any of the information contained in any of the reports, we should require AT&T to furnish the information directly.
3. The order in this decision should be effective at once to eliminate any further filings.
