ORDER

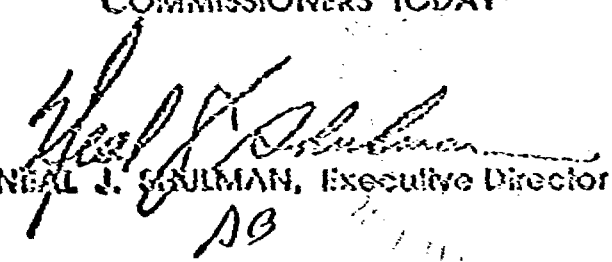

Decision (D.) 90-12-108, issued as an emergency order on December 20, 1990 is continued in full force and effect through January 9, 1991. D.90-12-108 authorizes the Executive Director to declare a gas supply emergency in Pacific Gas and Electric Company's (PG&E's) territory so that PG&E can divert transportation gas owned by third parties to serve core customers. PG&E informs us that the weather conditions that required D.90-12-108 continue to threaten the natural gas supply for P1 and P2A customers.

This order is effective today.
