Division.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

The safety programs of applicants Michael G. Cardoza, dba Michael Cardoza Trucking, Inc., and Michael Cardoza Trucking, Inc., dba M.T.C., Inc., were suspended as a result of unsatisfactory safety ratings after inspections by the California Highway Patrol. The applicants filed these applications for reinstatement. Hearings were conducted before Administrative Law Judge Gilman.

Subsequently, both applicants have received a "satisfactory" rating when reinspected by the California Highway Patrol. Consequently, applicants' operating authorities have now been reinstated by the Director of the Transportation Division.

These applications should therefore be dismissed as moot. Since these matters are not controversial, this order should be effective today.

IT IS ORDERED that:

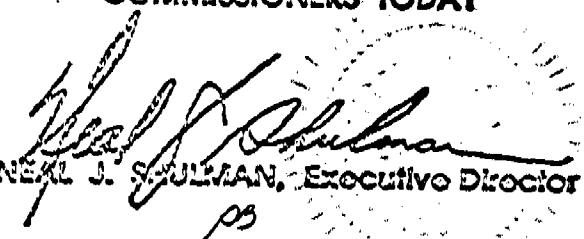

1. These applications are dismissed as moot.
2. This order closes these proceedings.

This order is effective today.

Dated April 24, 1991, at San Francisco, California.
