(Filed December 15, 1981;
amended February 8, 1982)

Richard A. Gifford, for himself, complainant.
Daniel Johnson, for Continental Telephone Company of California, defendant.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

At hearing on June 28, 1982, the parties agreed that the complaint could be settled as follows:

1. Complainants have $111.47 on deposit with the Commission. Of this sum, $36.64 relates to this proceeding and $74.83 relates to a more recently filed complaint. The parties agreed that $36.64 may be sent to Continental Telephone Company of California (Continental) to be applied to complainants' account.
2. The amount in dispute here is $50. The parties agreed that Continental would apply a $25 credit to complainants' account as a compromise of the dispute.

This complaint having been settled by agreement of the parties at hearing, therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Continental Telephone Company of California (Continental) shall apply a $25 credit to complainants' account.
2. Deposits by complainants of $36.64 shall be disbursed to Continental.
3. The complaint in Case 11053 is dismissed.
