 between Cotati - Petaluma - in San Francisco. (Subject to

Application 83-05-32
 (Filed May 16, 1983)

O P I N I O N

Delond G. Pertl, an individual (applicant), doing business as Ferngrove Roadrunner, proposes to provide home-to-work service between points in Cotati, Petaluma, and Novato, on the one hand, and Presidio Army Base in San Francisco, on the other hand.

Applicant's buses will arrive at the Base at 7:15 a.m. and depart the Base at approximately 4:15 p.m. for the return trip.

Applicant's financial statement is attached to the application and shows assets of $190,000 as of May 16, 1983.

Applicant proposes to provide the service using a 45-passenger, 1960 GMC bus which he owns.

Applicant's proposed fare for a 5-day/week round trip is $60 per month per person.

The application was listed in the Commission's Daily Calendar of May 18, 1983. The Commission's Transportation Division staff has reviewed the application and recommends that in the absence of protest or request for public hearing, it be granted by ex parte order. No protest has been received.

Findings of Fact

1. Home-to-work commuter buses play an important role in providing needed public transportation services and help to relieve an energy shortage.
2. New home-to-work services, such as proposed by applicant, should receive expedited approval.
3. On the basis of the information contained in the application, public convenience and necessity require that the proposed service be authorized for a period of one year, subject to the conditions more specifically set forth in the following order.
4. This order should be effective on the date of issuance so that the needed new service may be established as soon as possible.
5. It can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment.
6. A public hearing is not necessary.

Conclusion of Law

The application should be granted as set forth in the following order.

O R D E R

1. A certificate of public convenience and necessity is granted to Delond G. Pertl, authorizing him to operate as a passenger stage corporation as defined in Public Utilities (PU) Code Section 226, between the points and over the routes set forth in Appendix PSC-1303 of this decision, for the transportation of passengers and their baggage only.

2. Applicant shall:

- a. File a written acceptance of this certificate within 30 days after this order is effective.
- b. Establish the authorized service and file tariffs and timetables within 120 days after this order is effective.
