Application No. 55886

ORDER DENYING REHEARING
OF DECISION NO. 86542

On November 15, 1976, Max Kessler (doing business as Charter Marin Limousine) filed a petition for rehearing of Decision No. 86542. After reviewing each and every allegation presented in the petition, the Commission is of the opinion that good cause for rehearing has not been shown to exist. However, the Commission finds that certain statements of fact contained in Decision No. 86542 should be made to conform to the record. The Commission therefore concludes that Decision No. 86542 should be modified to change the phrase "The manager of a large motel in San Francisco" to "The manager of a large motel in San Rafael" and to delete the statement "Kessler's service is not used to San Rafael."

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Rehearing of Decision No. 86542 is hereby denied.
2. Paragraph 1 of page 3 of Decision No. 86542 is modified to read:

"The manager of a large motel in San Rafael testified that she provided her guests with Kessler's business telephone number because he is reliable and will pick up at the time requested by the guest. The guest is usually transported to, or picked up at, the airport although some go to the Oakland Airport."

The effective date of the order is the date hereof.

Dated at San Francisco, California, this

11th day of JANUARY, 1977.
