Decision 95-07-027 July 19, 1995

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of CalTech International Telecom Corporation for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to Provide InterLATA and IntraLATA Toll Telecommunications Services Within the State of California

Application 95-04-039 (Filed April 21, 1995) Supplemented May 21, 1995

ORIGINAL

CalTech International Telecom Corporation (applicant), a California corporation, seeks a certificate of public convenience and necessity (CPCN) under Public Utilities (PU) Code § 1001 to permit it to resell interLATA telephone services in California and to resell intraLATA telephone service under the terms for intraLATA competition permitted by this Commission. Applicant wishes to resell interLATA, intraLATA toll, intrastate WATS and MTS type long distance services. Applicant will not offer its own operator services.

By Decision (D.) 84-01-037 (14 CPUC2d 317, (1984)) and later decisions we authorized interLATA entry generally. However, we limited the authority conferred to interLATA service, and we subjected the applicants to the condition that they not hold themselves out to the public to provide intraLATA service. By D.94-09-065, we authorized competitive intraLATA services effective January 1, 1995, for carriers meeting specified criteria.

California is divided into ten Local Access and Transport Areas (LATAs) of various sizes, each containing numerous local telephone exchanges. InterLATA describes services, revenues, and functions that relate to telecommunications originating in one LATA and terminating in another. IntraLATA describes services, revenues, and functions that relate to telecommunications originating and terminating within a single LATA.

2001 01 JUL

The Commission has established two major criteria for determining whether a CPCN should be granted. An applicant who is a switchless reseller² must demonstrate that it has a minimum of $25,000 of cash or cash equivalent (as described in D.93-05-010 Appendix A, Paragraph 5(1)) 41 (CPUC 2d 505 at 1519), reasonably liquid and readily available to meet the firm's start-up expenses. Such applicants shall also document any deposits required by local exchange companies or interexchange carriers (IECs) and demonstrate that they have additional resources to cover all such deposits. (D.93-05-010.) In addition, an applicant is required to make a reasonable showing of technical expertise in telecommunications or a related business.

As part of its application, applicant provided its unaudited balance sheet as of April 20, 1995, and its profit and loss statement as of March 1995, and the unaudited balance sheet of Jeffrey and Marilynne Elkins as of December 31, 1994, along with the guarantee of Elkins, applicant's sole shareholder, of $75,000, which is irrevocable for a 12-month period after certification by this Commission. Applicant filed a motion for a limited protective order for this financial information citing that it contains confidential information and would do harm to applicant if revealed. No opposition to the motion was filed, and the motion was granted on May 3, 1995.

² D.93-05-010 defines a switchless reseller as a nondominant interexchange carrier (NDIEC) with the following characteristics: it uses the switch of another carrier; it usually, but not always, uses access circuits that the underlying carrier purchases from an LEC; it provides service in its own name, and its customers view it as their telephone company for interLATA and interstate calls. D.92-06-069 noted that it is possible to control, operate or manage telephone lines without owning them. The decision also notes that resellers which do not own or directly operate their own telephone wires may still have plant which is owned, controlled, operated and/or managed in order to facilitate communication by telephone.

Although this financial information is filed under seal, a review of it demonstrates that applicant has available to it unencumbered cash of at least $25,000. It satisfies our criteria for being reasonably liquid and readily available to meet the applicant's needs. In its supplement, applicant stated that it has not been required by any local exchange company or interexchange carrier to secure an agreement for services with deposits or letters of credit. However, the underlying interexchange carrier will require a lockbox controlled by the IEC in lieu of a deposit. A copy of the agreement is filed as Exhibit B to the supplement. It calls for the accounts receivables to be split weekly, with 25% going to applicant on that basis.

Applicant has provided information on its sole owner, indicating his education, technical training, and experience. It can be summarized as follows:

Mr. Jeffrey Elkins was an independent telecommunications consultant and has held high level management positions with MCI Telecommunications Corporation (MCI) and Westinghouse Communications. He managed all sales, marketing and administration in 11 western states for MCI as a regional director. He also managed sales in a 27-state area for Westinghouse as its western region director. He holds a B.S. in marketing from DePaul University and a B.S. in radio and television from Southern Illinois University.

Applicant filed revised tariff sheets with its supplement in which its deposit requirements were brought into conformity with our requirements. In the supplement, applicant also represented that no one associated with or employed by it was previously associated with a non-dominant interexchange carrier that filed for bankruptcy or went out of business.

We will authorize the interLATA and intraLATA services that applicant seeks to provide. Applicant has represented that no one associated with or employed by it was previously associated with a non-dominant

Findings of Fact

1. Applicant served a copy of the application and supplement upon 231 telephone corporation with which it is likely to compete.

2. A notice of the filing of the application appeared in the Daily Calendar on April 26, 1995. The application was supplemented on May 21, 1995.

3. No protests have been filed.

4. No opposition to the motion for confidentiality of the applicant's financial documents was filed and it was granted on May 3, 1995.

5. A hearing is not required.

6. By prior Commission decisions was authorized competition in providing interLATA telecommunications service but generally barred those offering such service from holding out to the public the provision of intralATA service.

7. By ID:94-091065, was authorized competitive intralATA services effective January 1, 1995 for carriers meeting specified criteria.

8. Applicant has demonstrated that it has a minimum of $25,000 of cash, reasonably liquid and readily available to meet its start-up expenses.

9. Applicant has also presented documentation from the carrier underlying interexchange carrier showing the level of deposits being required and applicant's ability to provide those deposits.

10. Applicant's technical experience consists of its sole owner's 8 years of experience as an independent telecommunications consultant and manager of marketing and sales for major carriers.

11. Applicant has submitted with its application a completed draft of applicant's initial tariff which complies with the requirements established by the Commission including prohibitions on unreasonable deposit requirements.

12. Applicant has represented that no one associated with or employed by applicant was previously associated with a nondominant interexchange carrier that filed for bankruptcy or went out of business.

13. Since no facilities (are) to be constructed, it can be seen with certainty that the proposed operation will not have a significant effect upon the environment.

14. The Commission has routinely granted nondominant interexchange carriers, such as applicant, an exemption from Rule 18(b) to the extent that the rule requires applicant to serve a copy of its application on cities and counties in the proposed service area and to the extent that it requires applicant to provide a conformed copy of all exhibits attached to applicant's filed application to potential competitors.

15. Exemption from the provisions of PU Code §§ 816-830 has been granted to other resellers. (See, e.g., D.86-10-007 and D.88-12-076.)
