BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of AIRPORT LIMOUSINE SERVICE OF SUNNYVALE, INC. dba Airport Connection (PSC 899) under Section 854 of the Public Utilities Code to transfer control of the passenger stage corporation to Bay Area Airport Connection Passenger Transportation Inc.

ORIGINAL

Application 97-09-025
(Filed September 8, 1997)

OPINION

Summary

Application dismissed for failure to pay filing fee.

Discussion

This application, filed September 8, 1997, seeks authority to transfer a certificate of public convenience and necessity as a passenger stage corporation (PSC 899) from Airport Limousine Service of Sunnyvale, Inc. to Bay Area Airport Connection Passenger Transportation Inc. Additional information was presented at the request of the Commission's Staff.

By letter dated January 20, 1998, Applicants were informed that the filing fee mandated by Public Utilities (PU) Code § 1036 (b) had not been submitted. A second letter dated February 27, 1998 again reminded Applicants of the missing filing fee. This letter also stated that Staff would recommend dismissal if there was no response by March 20, 1998. No response has been received.

Finding of Facts

1. Applicants were cautioned by letters dated January 20, 1998 and February 27, 1998 that a filing fee required by PU Code § 1036(b) had not been submitted.
2. No response to these letters has been received.
3. The mandatory filing fee has not been submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The application should be dismissed for failure to submit mandatory filing fees.
