In conformity with the findings and order made by the Commission in a resolution entered this day, Special Contract T-138,387-33 is ordered canceled and will not go into effect March 28, 1992.

Special contracts must include evidence of substantial shipper obligation in the contract. To meet this requirement the contract must either provide for the carrier to earn a minimum of $1,000 per month for delivered transportation services, or the contract must call for substantial shipper obligations not normally provided under common carrier tariff rates by any carrier.

Loudon Trucking Company filed special contract number T-138,387-33 with Pioneer Stationers, Inc., which appeared on the Commission's Daily Transportation Calendar February 25, 1992. The contract was suspended on February 27, 1992 for 30 days because it did not include evidence of the substantial shipper obligation, named in Rule 3.13 and required by Rule 6.14 of General Order 147-C. In addition, the contract lacks the specific effective date as required by Rule 8.2 of General Order 147-C.

In conformity with the findings and order made by the Commission in a resolution entered this day, Special Contract T-130,144-1 with Pacific Coast Building Products, Inc. is ordered canceled and will not go into effect March 9, 1992.

Special contracts must include evidence of substantial shipper obligation in the contract. To meet this requirement the contract must either provide for the carrier to earn a minimum of $1,000 per month for delivered transportation services, or the contract must call for substantial shipper obligations not normally provided under common carrier tariff rates by any carrier. The carrier failed to provide in the contract evidence of substantial shipper obligations as required by Rule 6.14 of General Order 147-C. Furthermore, the contract contains ambiguities which do not allow a precise determination of the compensation to be received by the carrier.

The contract was listed on the Commission's Daily Transportation Calendar on February 11, 1992 and was suspended on February 19, 1992 for 30 days.
