Subject: TANF Dilemma

Julie - what about using either the CARE or ERRA balancing accounts as a replacement for SGIP on the TANF matching funds issue. We have some folks here skeptical of the ERRA account because it is under-collected now but on a seasonal basis goes into an over-collected mode. There are also some worries that the dollars there are at risk. CARE is another option but I'm told DRA rejected that at one-point during the Reach Plus effort a year or so ago. Any thoughts ?
