Subject: RE: March 31 Deadline Conference Call

For this meeting on Thursday, lets try to make it a working group meeting, so that we can keep making progress to meet the March 31 deadline.

To the extent possible, I will try to attend the working group meetings through March, so that I can be aware of any bottlenecks and try to resolve issues in a timely way. Hopefully, this will mitigate the need for separate status meetings.

The first item on the agenda on Thursday can be a brief description of the process we have underway and the gameplan for what needs to be accomplished over the next several weeks. If there is disagreement and a need for a separate meeting just to discuss this process with a smaller subset of people, we can schedule a follow up meeting right away to have that separate discussion. But, lets plan to spend most of the time on Thursday making progress on the substantive issues.

We can meet until 4:30 or 5 on Thursday, if it would be better to have a longer time to make progress.

Thanks to all of you for being flexible in the scheduling. We'll plan on 3 to 4, with the option of going until 4:30 or 5 if that would be useful.

Hi, Peter!

Thanks for setting up the call. Just a clarifying question--is the meeting a high-level meeting where we are doing weekly high level status, outstanding items and schedules to make it to the March 31 deadline (i.e., this is the project status meeting as Shilpa requested) or is this intended to be a working group meeting with all the staff (both IOU and ED)? I hope it is the former as I don't think an hour would be time enough to catch up on all the items since about 3 weeks ago. I'd like to know before I start forwarding the notice to our entire working team.

I'm sorry to be making this a moving target, but I just got scheduled for another IOU EE meeting at 1:30 on Thursday that I do need to attend.

Is it possible for us to move this check-in/feedback meeting to the 3 to 4pm time slot on Thursday? Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30 is also possible, if that would be better. Wednesday afternoon is also open for me at this point, if we would be ready to meet by then.

My apologies for asking to reschedule, since its difficult to find a common time that works for everyone. Thanks!

Hi Kevin,
If you are referring to the meeting on the performance metrics, I understand that meeting is scheduled from 9 to 12:30 Thursday morning.

To the extent folks are in SF, we can get a room and have a face to face with those of you who will be here for the morning meeting.

Should we still go ahead with a 1:30 time slot, or do you want a bit more time to have a break from the morning meeting? We could push back and go from 2 to 3pm if that would work better for everyone.

Thanks Natalie. Thursday at 1:30 works for PG&E. It would be great if we can see all the documents you have for us by Tuesday (at the latest, earlier is better) so that we can review before our meeting and be able to ask intelligent questions to move this forward.

Looking forward to this collaboration!

We'd like to meet next week, but Tuesday is already very booked on my calendar. Would Thursday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30 be possible? If we can meet next Thursday, we can talk about scheduling follow up meetings and whether a regular weekly meeting through March would be helpful.

ED is finalizing a couple of docs to send to you, with one hopefully coming tomorrow and the other lighting measure workbook early next week. We will also send a follow up email regarding the IOU's common HIM workpapers. We can talk about these docs, any concerns, and next steps when we meet next Thursday.

If Thursday at 1:30 is not good, let us know and we can try to come up with a better time.

Peter, Natalie, Zeny, Don, Athena,

With March 31 (the day we lock down energy savings values for 2010-12) fast approaching, PG&E thought it would be a good idea to have weekly conference calls to review status and provide an outlet
to ask questions.

How do Tuesdays at 10 AM sound? I can set up a call-in number through March 31 if that time works for you. Or you can suggest an alternative time.

Thanks.
