Subject: 2009-2013 Incentive Mechanism - Procedural Question

Bob - Do you have any idea as to when we will see a proposed decision on a new energy efficiency incentive mechanism? Right now, we don't have a new mechanism to measure 2009 results nor do we have anything for the programs that are now going forward. I believe that under the existing mechanism, if no new mechanism is adopted, that we can apply the same methodology/mechanism we now have to 2009 and 2010 (assuming the new mechanism isn't resolved in 2010). If that is the case, how would you recommend we proceed? Let me know. Thx.
