[Reda

I sent the workbook as a draft to get some feedback from two folks that had already given me some feedback (Martin Vu from SCE and Mark McNulty from SDG&E). I'll have been hoping someone would have Excel2003 and test the workbook's functionality under the older Excel version for me. I have gotten feedback and will have a version to send around today that is compatible with Excel 2003. My intent wasn't to limit the distribution, but to limit how many folks had to be exposed to an untested draft.

I am hoping to use the project management site to distribute the workbook, but so far I only have sign-in information from PG&E. If other IOUs could send a list of people who want or need access to this project with their preferred sign-in name, email and phone number, I'll finish setting up the project management site and we can proceed from there.

Thanks,

Paul Reeves

Peter-

Paul had a very limited distribution list on the revised workbook he sent out this morning. PG&E was not on the list. I got a copy from Sempra, but others may not have got a copy either.
