Hi Theresa, thanks for getting back to me on the confidentiality decision. That is what I figured but wanted to make sure.

I will get some more date options from the Diablo Canyon folks and get back to you.

Hi Trina,

There will not be an opportunity to comment on the revised confidentiality decision. The changes are not substantive, so the decision is not recirculating.

It turns out that the week of April 12 doesn't work for two of the three advisors. What is the next available date (or two)?

Thanks,

Theresa
