ANSWER 6

Personal Injury Claims Paid in 2005, 2006 2007 and 2008 comprise payments to third parties for injuries alleged to have occurred in connection with PG&E's gas and electric operations. Personal injury claim payments during these years are divided among the categories shown in the attached table. Please see Attachment GRC2011-Ph-I_DR_DRA_178-Q06-Atch01-CONF.

PG&E's settlement information is highly confidential. The public release of settlement amounts and details has the potential to place the Company and its ratepayers at a disadvantage in pending and future claims settlements. Additionally, some settlements have confidentiality agreements. PG&E has not sought and does not have permission from third party claimants to disclose this information. Moreover, while such permission may not be required, PG&E is cognizant of the privacy concerns of other parties.
