I think Steve Malnight, our VP of Utility Renewable Development, would be a good choice.

hello,

thanks for that clarification. we need the utilities perspective on this and so I think we need to look for someone else. do you have any suggestions? what about Edison's Mark Ulrich or do you have someone?

Thanks Marzia. Brian would be a wonderful candidate, but he is employed by the Holding Company and his work is on behalf of PG&E Corporation, not PG&E Company, the utility. As long as we are clear on this issue, I have no problem with Brian being on the panel.

Hi Brian,

Commissioner Bohn is organizing this years WCPSC conference being held in Ojai, California (June 13th - 16). We would like for you to be a panelists in one of the planned sessions. The full agenda is attached in the link below. The session we are hoping for you to participate in is the following:

Session 2: Green Technologies - What are the Utilities Looking For? The Western States have aggressive green energy policy goals. Key renewable energy and innovation officers from the utilities will discuss what they are looking for in terms of green technology and what they are doing in order to meet these goals

The link below will provide you with the draft agenda as well as other information. The attached document is information about the Green Tech forum.

I have copied Lindsay Brown, Advisor to Comr Bohn, who is organizing the conference. Please let us know this week if you accept the invitation.

regards, marzia
