Steve,

So sorry for not getting back to you sooner. I'm copying Sidney Dietz, one of PG&E's Regulatory folks who has been their lead contact on most matters involving energy efficiency.

Sidney: if you aren't the appropriate person to address Steve's CARE reform concept (vouchers, rather than a pure subsidy, for smart appliance rebates), I would greatly appreciate it if you could direct Steve to somebody within PG&E who might be able to spare a half hour to discuss this, whether in person or over the phone. Let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Paul

Paul,

I wanted to follow-up to see if you can recommend someone I can connect with on our concept at the utilities.

Thanks much,

Steven
