Hi Jason: The agenda has been developed with your changes and those of other members. It was sent to Melissa and she expects to send in out with registration materials either today or Monday. I have attached here my last version but note that Melissa may be adding some final touches. The next step will be to identify speakers for the different panels. Please review and provide your suggestions (I believe that Melissa has some speakers in mind for some of the sessions and I will confirm this with her after she gets the mailings out). As we get speakers suggestions from you, Bob, Cheryl, Paul and Melissa, I think we will have a conference call to discuss our selections and make invitations. Take care- Eve

What's going on with the NCRA conference? Other than the agenda, I haven't seen much of anything. Do we need to have a conference call?
