Hi Mark, I actually got back from vacation myself last Wednesday, when I sent you the note! What days are good for you next week (I'm taking advantage of the fact that you may still be in the vacation-spirit). For me, Wednesday morning is the annual shareholder's meeting, and I have to go -- but other than that, I can move other items,

Jane

Hi Jane – I was on vacation last week and just returned to the office yesterday. Maybe you can take a look at what we file tomorrow and we can meet sometime next week.

Hi Mark, do you want to informally check-in sometime in the next week on our PG&E GRC. You're probably working on the DRA testimony for next week, maybe after you're done?

Thx
Jane
