Subject: Update Regarding 2010 Western Conference of Public Service Commissioners Ojai
June 13-16

The 2010 Western Conference of Public Service Commissioners is fast approaching, and we wanted to remind you to make your hotel reservations as soon as possible. The block at the Ojai Valley Inn & Spa will be lifted on May 20 and all available rooms will return to general inventory after May 20.

Also, there will be a wonderful session on Repowering State Economies by Going Green that we have put together on the afternoon of Sunday, June 13 to kick off the conference. Representatives from the California Community College system, the Coalition for the Green Bank, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Utility Workers and NARUC will discuss the transformation of State economies into a de-carbonized and sustainable future. The discussion will include a spotlight on new jobs being created by exciting new technologies, the impact of Federal stimulus money, and whether ARRA is working. On Sunday, June 13, join us for a snack starting at 2:30 PM. The Green Jobs session will be at 3:30 PM.

Please note that we have added a tour of the Ronald Reagan Foundation and Library on Tuesday afternoon. If you have already registered and would like to switch your activity selection, please contact Stephanie Green at sjg@cpuc.ca.gov.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Ojai! For further information about the WCPSC, please visit our webpage: <http://www.cpuc.ca.gov/WCPSC/>
