Subject: RE: Analyst Report (Deutsche) - Manzana and 2011 GRC

All,

Today, Jonathan Arnold came out with a brief report on the Manzana schedule and the GRC hearings. On Manzana, he points out intervenor opposition related to costs and environmental concerns. Arnold concludes by saying, "The case could provide further insight into the CPUC's view of utility-owned renewables (beyond the utilities' solar PV projects)." This report supports what we have seen - that analysts are tracking Manzana and the GRC closely and view them as the largest upcoming cases for the rest of the year.
