George,

We've rescheduled the meeting to Friday per your request, but if you have any availability later today or tomorrow, we'd like to have a conference call to discuss and resolve. We want to make sure that any changes to the incentive calculations are made and shared publicly before we start the Settlement

Conference next Thursday, June 24. This will help ensure everyone is using the corrected set and the same starting point.

Thanks. Let us know what your availability is.
