I figured that would happen, sorry about that. I've got a DA workshop next Monday and Tuesday, so Wednesday next week is the earliest for me. Anytime but Wednesday afternoon would work.

Steve. I've got some other meetings that have appeared on my calendar since we last communicated. Would the morning of Tuesday, 7/13 work for you and Gurbux? I'm free all that morning. Erik

Hi Erik,

Sorry for the late response—we could meet tomorrow morning, if that still works for you--

Steve, Getting together with you and Gurbux later next week sounds great. I've got good availability Thursday morning or Friday. Erik

Hi Erik,

Responding to your voicemail yesterday, first, welcome back! You've certainly landed in the middle of an interested proceeding, among many others on your plate, I'm sure. I think your suggestion of a get-together is a good one, but I think it would be best if we schedule a more formal meeting here with my boss, Gurbux Kahlon, and you and me. (Gurbux is the manager overseeing electric and gas rates, and I supervise one of the electric rates sections, including the DA and CCA proceedings).

Would the latter half of next week be workable for you?

Steve
