After a long battle with cancer, our good friend and colleague Dana Appling, Director of the Division of Ratepayer Advocates, died this afternoon at home surrounded by her friends and family. She'll be dearly missed.

Details on memorial services and family contact info will be forthcoming.

This is a very sad day for all of us at the PUC, and for all of the many, many people Dana touched and inspired during her time with us. Our thoughts are with Dana's family today.
