Paul - as a result of my conversation with Tom on the Advisory Committee, he told Peter and now Peter wants him to brief the Board tomorrow. I think I answered all of his questions except one: what type of people will be on the Board ? Are they folks with engineering expertise, public policy backgrounds, gas experts, people of certain political or what ?

Can you give me any clues ?

BTW, I told Tom that Dean Florez and John Geesman were likely to be named.....
