Also - we were going to contact local officials starting tomorrow and tell them what projects in their area fall into the Top 100. We were then going to ask to arrange briefings with their City Managers, etc. later next week (after the press conference on Monday). I'm not sure that will happen.

Chris, Peter, Tom and other officers will be in the building tomorrow. They may change their mind (likely) numerous time (likely) but I wanted to give you a heads up where we've been and where we are headed.
