

Codes & Standards – Reach Codes Subprogram

	Mission
SW Program: Codes & Standards	This sub-program advocates for the development and implementation of minimum state code requirements and may be adopted by local jurisdictions. Program monitors and/or participates in a wide range of activities or projects or indirect impacts on California regulations including, but not limited to Heating, Refrigerating, and Air-Conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE), international standards including Europe, Asia, Canada, and Australia, voluntary standards such as the Green Building Certification Council (GBCC) and ratings organizations such as the Cool Roof Rating Council (CRRC) and the Green Building Rating Council (GBRC), and the United States Green Building Council (USGBC).
SW Sub -program: Reach Codes

Short-term (2010-2012) “SMART” Sub-program Objectives:	Source
1. By 2012, map a trajectory for T24 mandatory and voluntary standards through 2020.	Staff/SP 2
2. By 2012, C&S develops SW reach code templates to streamline the reach code adoption and compliance support IOU PROPOSED: By 2012, C&S develops new construction model reach code language to streamline reach code adoption. Coordinate with compliance improvement sub program efforts.	Staff/PGE
3. By 2012, produce consistent package of "reach code" that applicable at time-of-scale" while remain consistent with current T24 climate designations to reduce potential market confusion IOU PROPOSED: By 2012, produce a package of reach code documentation for each climate zone that is applicable to existing homes.	Staff/ (C&S)
4. By 2012, with the support of C&S program, CEC develops pre-approved model reach codes so as to eliminate duplicative LG development costs and facilitate subsequent adoption of code IOU PROPOSED: By 2012, in cooperation with the CEC, the C&S program develops templates for reach codes so as to reduce duplicative LG development costs and facilitate subsequent adoption of code.	Staff/ (C&S)
5. By 2012, IOUs encourage xx% of local government leadership and enforcement personnel to recognize benefits and support activities to optimize existing codes. IOU PROPOSAL: By 2012, IOUs conduct outreach to xx% of local governments to recognize benefits and support activities to optimize compliance with existing codes. IOU PROPOSED 2: By 2012, provide XX advocacy sessions targeting local governments, in cooperation with energy training centers and other EE programs.	Staff/PGE

6. By 2012, develop XX CASE Studies in support of Title 24, Part 11 voluntary standards for Commercial Buildings.	Staff/SP p
7. By 2012, xx of local jurisdictions will adopt reach code as a result of the RC sub-program activities, in residential and/or commercial sectors. IOU PROPOSED: By 2012, IOUs anticipate that XX local jurisdictions will adopt reach code in residential and/or commercial sectors as a result of RC sub program activities, subject to local jurisdiction discretion. Adoption is defined as	Ken Keati

Short-term Sub-program PPMs:	Source (SP, AL, DR, PIP, or Staff)*	Me (2a
1. Number of jurisdictions in IOU Service territories implementing Reach Codes in residential and/or commercial sectors as a result of the RC sub-program activities.	Staff	2b

SP=Strategic Plan, AL=Advice Letter, DR=Data Request Response, PIP=program plans, Staff=ED proposed. [Include page reference when applicable.]*

Metric type: 2a = reported annually, 2b = reported by end of cycle.*

Long-Term (2013-2020) "SMART" Sub-program Objectives:	Source
--	---------------

None proposed.
----------------	--

Long-Term Sub-program MT Indicators:	Source (SP, AL, DR, PIP, or Staff)*	Me
None proposed.		