Thanks, Tom. I'll be drafting up a letter to PG&E based on Mike's to me, where I can clarify things like that. Transmission-level is a good bet.

Paul,
Peter and Chris will both be there.

Also, I wanted to clarify that the order to re-survey is focused on the transmission system (which can be done fairly quickly).

We just finished the distribution system, and to do it again could take one to two years.
