Thanks, Brian. Like you, I got to know Jackie during my gas utility days, and always found her -- as you've aptly put it -- gracious and understanding. We're all reeling from the loss and from the devastation, as I'm sure many people at PG&E are as well. Hang in there.

Thanks Frank. I've been in the boondocks of Yellowstone with my son all week and I heard about the tragedy sporadically. I am so sorry for everyones loss. I've know Jackie since my days at SoCalGas. She was always gracious and understanding, even when we disagreed. My heart goes out to her family. I'm back in town Monday. Perhaps we can catch up then

DRA's Jacqueline Greig Feared Dead in San Bruno Explosion

The press is now reporting the feared deaths of our friend and DRA colleague Jackie Greig and her youngest daughter in yesterday's San Bruno explosion and fire. Jackie's husband James and older daughter were at a school event at the time, and are safe.

Although there's still no official confirmation, I'm afraid we must prepare to accept the worst.

The many, many people who knew and loved Jackie grieve with her family. In her over 20 years with us here at the PUC, Jackie's quiet strength, great intelligence, and sincere friendliness shone through to everyone around her. She was a model of kindness and caring and we can all fall back on that example ourselves now, for help in dealing with her loss.

We'll circulate memorial information when arrangements are made.
