Thx. Don't worry about it.

> Paul - I've just been told that Richard Clark dropped by the San Bruno site and was asked to leave by a distribution crew. Details are sketchy, but the crew was welding and I'm told Richard didn't have the appropriate safety equipment for being in a welding area and that he showed up unannounced. Let Richard know that he is welcome to show up any time but if he can give us a heads up, we can be prepared to have the appropriate safety equipment available for him. My apologies again.
