They say it sounds right if parsed correctly. Can you give me the document to confirm more carefully?

yours,

It sounds correct if we are focused on SmartMeter escalated high-bill complaints. As long as inquiries and nonSmartMeter related and installation related issues are left out of the count. I can't recall what DR this is in response to. If you have it it would help. We have made sure all complaint related questions are going through us/Lavern's team.

Did we really only get 2197 SM complaints?

Hi Sid,

I'm reviewing PG&E's data response and it says that you guys only recorded 2197 customer complaints on smart meters? that doesn't sound right, is it?
