Gurbux,

Spoke to Jane Yura. We would like to meet with you and Julie for an hour or so to follow up on December 2 or December 3. Please let me know if either day works and we can coordinate a time and an agenda. I was thinking we could discuss our prioritization process and begin to think about what types of templates (per Julie's email) might make sense.

I am in on Monday, but out the rest of the week. You can reach me by email if need be. Hope your Thanksgiving holiday is great!

Best regards,

Jennifer
