I'll take a look at this. I know there is a lot of divvying up of the ptc replacement analysis that actually IS being coordinated, and I'm hoping it is reflected in this scope.

Let's try to grab coffee next time one of us is in the other's neck o the woods. I'd like to hear how your new gig is going.

Hi Pete, I know you've moved on but I thought of you when I heard about this. Wondering how this fits in with the cooperative cross-agency document you helped pull together....

No need to answer -- mostly this is just a poke although I AM curious what you think of this. Maybe next time we catch up over coffee. Hope you're well!
